A review of the social status of the Bulgarian society during the Revival period is done in regard to the creation of the Bulgarian literary language. The theme for the leading national centre is considered. Special attention is paid to the role which the Bulgarian communities in Romania and Istanbul play. The observations are based on the available statistics data. 